ORDER:

It has been suggested that in view of the fact that India has been divided into 34 zones for the purposes of movement of cotton Textiles each province or State being one zone, there is no necessity for the Provincial Government to control the inter-zonal movement of cotton textiles and therefore suggested that all the control orders of the Provincial Government may be repealed. The Provincial Textile Commissioner has suggested that there is no necessity for the continuance of the Madras Cotton cloth and Apparel (Exports) Control Order, 1946 and that it may therefore be repealed As regards the Madras Cotton Yarn (Exports)Control Order, 1946 the Provincial Textile Commissioner has suggested that it may be repealed but that a new Order may be issued to enable him to grant general permission to the mills to export yarn to other Provinces outside the zone on their own authority. While the Government accept the Progincial Textile Commissioner's suggestion that the Madras Cotton Cloth and Apparel (Exports) Control Order, 1046 and the Madras Cotton Yar (Export) Control Order, 1946 may be repealed, they do not agree to the promulgation of a new Order mainly to give powers to the Provincial Textile Commission to grant permission to the mills to export ~~year~~ yarn to places outside the zone. The Textile Commissioner, Bombay can delegate powers to the Provincial Textile Commissioner to enable him to grant general permission to the mills and the Provincial Textile Commissioner may address him in this regard.
